

REPORT

FROM THE

SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY,

In relation to the appropriation for removing obstructions and deepening the Harbor of Mobile, &c. &c.

FEBRUARY 23, 1829.—Read, and ordered to be printed.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, February 21, 1829.

SIR: In obedience to a Resolution of the Senate of the 19th instant, "Directing the Secretary of the Treasury to inform the Senate whether the appropriation made for removing the obstructions and deepening the harbor of Mobile has been expended; what progress has been made in the work, and what additional sum will be required to complete the same; I have the honor to state, that of the appropriation alluded to, the sum of seven thousand one hundred and twenty-eight dollars and seventy-eight cents has been drawn from the Treasury upon the requisitions of the War Department; that Department having been charged by the President of the United States with the execution of the act embracing the appropriation. I beg leave to add, that, as the execution of the act was so confided to the War Department, the Treasury is not in possession of the further information required by the Resolution touching the progress of the work, and the additional sum that may be necessary to complete it.

I have the honor to remain,

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

RICHARD RUSH.

Hon. the President of the Senate of the U. S.

REPORT

FROM THE

SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY

In relation to the appropriation for removing obstructions and deepening the harbor of Mobile, &c. &c.

Presented to the Senate, January 23, 1850.—Read, and ordered to be printed.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, February 21, 1850.

SIR: In obedience to a resolution of the Senate of the 18th instant, calling on the Secretary of the Treasury to inform the Senate whether the appropriation made for removing the obstructions and deepening the harbor of Mobile had been expended; what progress has been made in the work; and what additional sum will be required to complete the same; I have the honor to state that of the appropriation allotted to the sum of seven thousand one hundred and twenty-eight dollars and seventy-eight cents has been drawn from the Treasury upon the requisition of the War Department; that the amount having been charged by the President of the United States with the execution of the act extending the appropriation, I beg leave to add that as the execution of the act was so committed to the War Department the Treasury is not in possession of the further information required by the Senate in regard to the progress of the work and the additional sum that may be necessary to complete it.

I have the honor to remain,

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

RICHARD HUGH

For the President of the Senate of the U. S.